DRESS CODE

We are a special occasion restaurant and we encourage our guests to dress for the occasion they're celebrating. We prefer a style of dress that is polished yet comfortable. We consider attire such as gym wear, sweatpants, ball caps, clothing with offensive language, images or odors, and exposed undergarments too casual for our restaurant. Please be considerate of others and limit distractions that may interrupt the dining experience including disruptive behaviors, crying children, and audible technologies. Truluck's reserves the right to refuse service regardless of reservation status.
